

MAYOR KIEL AGAINST RACE SEGREGATION

In Strong Article to Argus Denounces Plan as Un-constitutional. Says He Will Veto Bill if It Comes to Him.

Mayor Henry W. Kiel, in a supplementary statement issued a few days ago, reiterated his stand in opposition to segregation, and when questioned by representatives of the daily press again pledged himself to take the stump against the segregation question if it ever becomes a campaign issue in St. Louis for or against its adoption.

The Mayor makes the unqualified declaration that he will veto segregation ordinance if such a proposed law ever reaches his desk.

The Mayor favors the adoption of the Central Parkway at the special election June 8, and explains his reasons for approving the big improvement. He declares that the parkway and segregation problems are separate and distinct, and should not be combined or confused in an effort to defeat the parkway.

The segregation question at this time, the Mayor says, is being used as a hug-a-bug by opponents of the Central Parkway to cause the colored voters to vote against the parkway. Colored residents will be aiding their own cause by disregarding segregation arguments at this time presented by opponents of the parkway, he declares.

The Mayor's official statement follows: "Since I outlined my stand last week opposing segregation, I have been questioned by representatives of the daily press. I was asked whether I had been correctly quoted, and to explain more fully my position on the segregation question if it ever comes to an issue in St. Louis.

"I made my position as plain to them as possible, and reiterated my unqualified opposition to any law which does not give equal rights to all.

"There is no quibble about my position on the question. I am openly with the colored residents on this question, and I do not propose to allow any such law to be placed on the city records while I am Mayor, if it is in my power to prevent it.

"I favor the Central Parkway, because I believe it will be the greatest step forward St. Louis ever has taken. Many colored residents own property, and are deeply interested in building up this city.

"It is with great regret that I find the question of race segregation has been injected into the Central Parkway campaign.

"This issue has no connection with the parkway and should not have been brought up at this time, and, in fact, should not be brought up at all in this land of equal rights for all.

"Opponents of the Central Parkway are using this segregation issue to try to defeat the ordinance to authorize the appointments of commissioners to ascertain the cost of the big improvement. The fixing of the cost and the manner of paying for the parkway virtually is the only issue in this parkway campaign.

"The fears of our colored residents that the construction of the parkway would bring about a segregation movement are without foundation. Segregation and the parkway are entirely separate and distinct propositions.

"If the parkway ordinance were defeated, it does not mean that those who are pushing the segregation question would drop it. It is now used as a scare to frighten colored people against the parkway. After the parkway problem is decided, the advocates of segregation will find some other argument to use to try to carry their point in the segregation matter.

"I wish to say now, as I have already said on several occasions, that I am opposed to the enactment of a law providing for the segregation of colored people. If such a measure designed to carry out such a move ever reaches my office, I will promptly attach my veto to it.

"If the segregation question ever reaches the stage of a campaign issue for or against its adoption, I pledge myself to 'take the stump' and make speeches opposing it if it becomes necessary to defeat it.

"But even if a segregation law be finally adopted in St. Louis, I am confident it never would become effective. It would without doubt be declared unconstitutional by the courts and promptly thrown out, on the ground that it violates the sovereign rights of citizens by drawing the color line. Such a law could not endure here, and would perish in short order.

"The real question to be determined June 8 at the parkway election is whether commissioners shall be appointed by the Circuit Court to definitely fix the cost of the parkway and the manner of paying for it.

"You want to know what the parkway will cost. I want to know. Every citizen in St. Louis wants to know. All the residents of this city are entitled to know definitely the cost and the amount of their assessments to pay for it.

"When the commissioners ascertain the cost, and fix the exact payments of each property owner, it will do away with future wild estimates and guesses, and will give an exact basis for future action.

"If the cost proves excessive, the city can abandon the parkway entirely. The property in the entire parkway strip is assessed at $4,100,000. Advocates of the parkway say it can be built for not over $7,500,000. Opponents have estimated the cost at $15,000,000.

"I pledge myself, in behalf of the city, to dismiss the condemnation proceeding and abandon the parkway if the cost is found by the commissioners to be more than $10,000,000.

"A material portion of the negro population are property owners, and are vitally interested in the parkway and its cost.

"The parkway is a necessity, and is not a luxury. The colored voters owe it to themselves and their families to inform

Clover Leaf Forging To The Front

Director Manager, E. Hawkins, Sees Bright Future For Agents

That the Clover Leaf Casualty Co., of Jacksonville, Ill., is forging its way to the front and in the hearts of St. Louisans is becoming more evident every day. It was the writer's pleasure to call at the local office, located at 2359 Market St., a few days ago, and finding an opportunity to speak at some length with the District Manager, Mr. E. Hawkins relative to the operation of this company in the city. Mr. Hawkins, who was very busy, said that the Clover Leaf was paying their claims and forging to the front. And as evidence of that fact he pulled from a drawer a flat of claims that had been paid through the local office about eight feet long with the names of a large number of business and professional men, and in fact men and women of all ages, who had been disabled and had been benefited by receiving their money promptly. When asked what he thought of other companies doing the same kind of business among colored people, Mr. Hawkins produced a list of ten agents directly under him who are employed by the Clover Leaf, and said: "Where is another company in this city that has as many colored men employed?" The Clover Leaf is making plans for our men. They have a young woman employed as clerk and cashier, a very responsible position, which she fills with credit.

"I have nothing to say against any company. I am a booster and have no time to knock. A knocker never won anything by knocking."

We found Mr. Hawkins very optimistic on the question of the future of colored insurance agents in this city and said that though the company was always willing to promote and encourage the agents to go to other cities where they might have full charge of a district, he was loath to give up anyone of his force on account of the peace and harmony that exist here at present.

"One of the chief purposes of the parkway is to solve our traffic problems. The streets are the life of the city. Good streets and good street connections build cities. The parkway will make a wider thoroughfare from the congested downtown district along the main lines of travel east and west, connecting the main highways north and south. It will tie St. Louis together and let it grow as a unit.

"The parkway will mean more playgrounds, recreational facilities, and athletic fields for the people. Bandstands, swimming pools, tennis courts, gymnasiums, and meeting halls will be provided in the various blocks between Jefferson and Grand Avenue.

"The parkway would be the first big improvement in building a greater St. Louis. Let every voter work together for the success of the parkway by voting 'yes,' and authorize the fixing of the cost.

UNION MEMORIAL HONORS PASTOR B. F. ABBOTT

Methodist Congregation Holds Big Celebration and Re-Union of Its Membership, With Representative From Sister M. E. Churches in Honor of His Return to Pastorate of Church for the Eighth Consecutive Year.

Dr. B. F. Abbott was signally honored by a brilliant reception and church family reunion held Wednesday, May 5, in response to the confirmation of his re-election to the pastorate of the Union Memorial Church, also in full appreciation of his return to the pastorate of Union Memorial Church for the eighth year.

The whole affair was carried out according to careful and painstaking plans of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. The Abbott program, presided over by Miss Aracelia M. Williams, consisted of ringing welcomes from every department of the church to the returning pastor, and the singing of hymns, and the playing of piano accompaniment by the choir and the organ.

At the conclusion of the welcome from the Mothers' Circle, a huge bouquet of pure white flowers was presented by Mrs. Lela C. Austin, the president of the Mothers' Circle, of the purity of his character and his clean record in the church. Following the introduction of Dr. Abbott by Mrs. William King, president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, a committee headed by Mrs. Louis Shinn presented Dr. Abbott a purse of a handsome sum with which to purchase a suit and other accessories. Mrs. Lawless made the pleasing presentation. When Dr. Abbott addressed the congregation, he spoke of the many ways in which the church members had helped him in his work, and of the many ways in which he had helped them.

B. H. Mosby And Brother Threaten Argus Editor

Tries To Intimidate the Press By Bullying Tactics

Ben H. Mosby, teacher of history at the Summer High School, and his brother are both out after the scalp of the editor of the St. Louis Argus. They are incensed at the Argus because we dared to tell the truth about the bad influences at Summer, and are breathing out threatenings against the journal and its editor.

Last Friday, while collecting papers at the store of the Jones Drug Company at N. Market and Pendleton, Editor Mitchell's attention was attracted by a frenzied voice crying out: "You are the piece of humanity I am going to get. I am going to fix you up." Upon looking up, the editor recognized Mosby as the speaker. Mitchell stated that he was not looking for trouble but was attending to his business and was not thinking about Mosby. Whereupon Mosby retorted: "Don't make little of what I say or I'll do it now." Upon being invited to get up, the editor told Mosby that he was not looking for trouble but was attending to his business and was not thinking about Mosby.

Mosby and his brother seemed to have become incensed at an article appearing in the last issue of the Argus concerning the bad conditions which exist at Summer High School. There has been bad blood on the part of Mosby for the Argus for some time because of its efforts to tell the truth about the teachers whose usefulness has long since been questioned. This is the second attempt of Mosby to use bully tactics with the Argus. His former effort was at the foot of the game last Thanksgiving, when he ordered the Argus reporter from the field.

The Argus repeats here, what it has said before. It bears no malice toward Mosby or any other person, but it is interested in the public school and in the moral, civic and political betterment of the citizens of St. Louis, especially the Negro citizens, and will continue to speak out on all times about any matter of public interest in spite of the bully tactics or threats of Ben Mosby, his brother or any other person.

THE MAYOR'S POSITION

In a statement issued a few days ago, Mayor Kiel has made clear his position with regard to segregation. In unmistakable words he takes his stand in opposition to segregation. His position is based primarily upon his "unqualified opposition to any law which does not give equal rights to all."

This reason alone would be sufficient to justify the Mayor's stand. But more than this, he declares himself to be, and in words and acts has always shown himself to be, the friend of the Negro.

Mayor Kiel goes further and declares himself in favor of the Central Parkway. He believes it would be a benefit, not only to the city, but to the Negroes. He expresses his regret that the segregation question should be injected into the Parkway matter and declares it to be a bit of political trickery on the part of the Parkway opponents who seek to set up segregation as a scare-crow to frighten the Negro away from the Parkway project.

The Mayor holds out much encouragement to the St. Louis Negro in two or three of his statements. He says: "There is, no quibble about my position on the question. I am, up to the neck, with the colored residents on this question, and I do not propose to allow any such law to be placed on the city records while I am Mayor, if it is in my power to prevent it." Again, he says: "If the segregation question ever reaches the stage of a campaign issue for or against its adoption, I pledge myself to 'take the stump' and make speeches opposing it, if that becomes necessary to defeat it."

As further encouragement, and advice the Mayor adds: "Colored residents will be aiding their own cause by disregarding segregation arguments at this time presented by opponents of the Parkway." And, "The fears of our colored residents that the construction of the Parkway would bring about a segregation movement are without foundation. Segregation and the Parkway are entirely separate and distinct propositions."

We have printed the Mayor's complete statement in another column, and we want every Negro in St. Louis to read and digest it. It is the most splendid defense we have yet had during this reign of calumny, injustice and attempted discrimination.

We commented last week on the stand taken in our favor by a prominent white lady and published in that issue. But far more important and effective is this statement from the official head of the city.

We repeat—these two cases are not isolated. There are hundreds of white people, high in the social and political world, who are our friends and who stand for equal rights and justice.

The lesson to us is very clear: First, we must so conduct ourselves, in all our social relations—in manner, speech and ways of living—as to merit a continuance of the confidence, respect and friendship of white people of prominence. Second, in our political affiliations and activities, we must manifest our confidence and trust in those who have our civic interests at heart. We must work for them as they are working for us. Let us be with those who are for us, rather than with those who are against us.

OUR INCONSISTENT PRESIDENT

Someone has said, "Inconsistency, thy name is woman." Had this philosopher lived in our day and land, he would have said, "Inconsistency, thy name is Wilson."

But what can we expect? Just as inconsistent to try to fit a square peg in a round hole, so is it inconsistent to take a mystic scholar off the shelf and put him into the turmoil of political life.

Of all the Wilsonian inconsistencies, here is the worst. In his Philadelphia speech the other day occurred this jewel: "I am very thankful that this country has the word 'United' in its title; and the man who seeks to divide man from man, group from group, interest from interest, in the United States, is striking at its very heart."

W. Wilson, thou maker of beautiful phrases—thou juggler of words—thou rhetorical diplomat!

Who first sought, under the present administration, "to divide man from man, group from group"? Who first divided colored Americans from white Americans in the Federal departments at Washington? Who first instituted separate wash rooms, lunch rooms and work rooms in the great American administrative offices? Who first sought to divide colored mail clerk from white mail clerk on American railways? Who first divided colored "interests" from white "interests," and then proceeded utterly to ignore the colored interests?

Who? Wilson, the language contortionist!

Who, then, is foremost in the United States at "striking at its very heart"? Let his own words convict him.

We had always supposed that any man in the United States, guilty of "striking at its very heart," was a traitor.

Mr. President, we rise to a question of information: "Is Wilson a traitor?"

METROPOLITAN NOTES

By Miss Callie King

The New Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church is still making headway in the great work it first started out to do. Sunday morning the people flocked from every quarter of the city to listen to the fiery gospel sermons from their eloquent Pastor, Dr. B. G. Shaw.

The pastor seemed to have exhibited more than ordinary strength as a pulpiteer Sunday morning and evening; so powerful was his sermon Sunday night that fourteen people were baptized.

The pastor will close his series of sermons on the "Life of Moses" Sunday morning; Sunday night he will preach about "A letter from the penitentiary" and the choir will sing "Where is my wandering boy to night?"

The Metropolitan choir, under the direction of Prof. Robert Austin, is singing to the delight of all those who gather in beautiful Zion. If you are young voice cultured, see Mr. Austin in his studio at the Metropolitan Church.

Crystal Star Household of Ruth, No. 1761, of Jefferson County-Lodge, No. 5166, of Peasas, Mo., held their Annual Thanksgiving Services at Ward's Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Sunday, May 9, 1915. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. Sanders, Special Deputy of the 15th District. Text was taken from First Corinthians, 20th chapter, 15th verse. The sermon was well delivered. The speaker showing himself equal to the task. Our hearts were made to burn while we tarried by the way, and all were made to exclaim, "It is good for us to be here." After the free will offering, Miss Florence Gregory, of 13 G. M. N. G. of No. 3411, St. Louis, who assisted in lifting the collection, read an excellent paper on the history and origin of the Household of Ruth. It was replete in every way instructive and encouraging. We felt highly favored by being entertained by one whose heart and soul is in the work. We hope to have her with us again.

FRED THOMPSON DIES

Mr. Fred Thompson, the favorite brother of Mrs. Bessie T. Page, 105 N. Channing, and with whom he resided, departed this life on May 7, after a brief illness.

He was forty years of age. He was formerly a resident of Adams, Tenn., where the Thompsons were among the pioneer settlers. He was an active member of St. Douglas Baptist Church, 2604 LaCade. His pastor, Rev. Foster, and a committee of members from the church administered the last sacrament on Monday before his death. He often testified he would keep the bonds of faith; that he had no fear of death.

His sister and a brother were at the bedside when he died, and peacefully. The remains were taken to rest in Father Dickson Cemetery, on May 7.

He is survived by a father and brother in Nashville, Tenn., and a brother and sister in this city.

IN MEMORIAM

To the memory of our dear daughter, Irene Leone Jenkins, who departed this life May 16, 1914.

"One sad year has passed away,
And time brings no relief;
Daughter, we miss you more and more,
With love and bitter grief.
Peaceful be your sleep, Irene,
'Tis sweet to breathe your name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same."

Sadly missed by father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Jenkins, Potosi, Mo.

Some Hints To Moving Picture Patrons

As Told by W. H. King, Proprietor Of The Garden Air dome 2120 Market Street

First, patronize those places that give you your race employment.

When you don't feel like going to Forest Park Highlands, come to the Garden Air dome where you are always welcome. (Blood is thicker than water.)

How many white odiums on Market St. employ colored help?—All of our employees are colored.

We spent Eight Hundred Dollars in improvements, and every dollar was paid to Colored workmen. How many white odiums on Market St. have done as much for the race?

If you think you are doing right by spending all of your nickels in white odiums, let your daughter apply for a position as Cashier at one of them, and please let us know, so we take the position.

We are giving our patrons the best moving pictures that money can buy, even though we are forced to send to Chicago to get them because the white odium proprietors on Market St. have bought up all of the local service in an effort to keep us from doing business among our own people.

For any further information along this line, see Mr. King, 2120 Market St., at the Garden Air dome.—Adv.

Madam:—My friends and myself think there is no other course like this one. We like it better and better. I can't help but smile whenever I open a box of Oxford Dressing Oil. My friends are always glad to hear of me making a new order. It is doing a wonderful work on some heads I deal with. Your agent, Miss Estelle Young, Ethelville, Ala.

I am compelled to say the Oxford hair preparations are among the best on the market, as you would certainly have heard from me in case your course of treating the scalp had not pleased or helped me. I think it is no more than fair to let you know that the opposite is the case.

Now, when I say that I am pleased with all that came to me from you, I am speaking the sentiments of my friends, for those that have received treatments assist me greatly in advertising my work.

Now that I am out again I am determined to do all I can for the work. Yours truly, Miss Mayne Smith, Moss Point, Miss.

W. L. MAJORS, PRES.

TESTIMONIALS:

Dear Madam:

I have a friend by the name of Mrs. Sarah Miller, and have been personally friendly to her for over three years, and during the time she wore a wig. I have been treating her hair for about two months, and now she has taken the wig off, and uses her own hair except a small piece in the back. This treatment is wonderful, I must say. Another lady by the name of Mrs. Emma Tule, when I first saw the lady I was afraid to touch her hair, I thought I would burn the scalp, her hair was so short, and if you had seen her before I began to treat her scalp you would not believe it was the same head; it was the worst one I have met with. I will mention some more next time.

Your agent, Mrs. Mariel Hall, Tampa, Fla.

Dear Madam: Yes, Nineteen Fourteen, in the month of August, I was visiting my friend, Mrs. Emma B. Willis; she and I were looking over the Voice of the People, a newspaper, and found Major's advertised hair grower, and we both decided to work for the Oxford College. I have tried everything for my hair and nothing did it any good, until I began using Major's Hair Oil, and I feel proud of my hair today, and feel more than able to speak for it anywhere and any time. I can truly say it is the real thing and does the work.

And I will say to all ladies, let us work hard, and use W. L. Major's face cream, hair oils and powder, and look good.

Your agent, Mrs. Annie Johnson, New Decatur, Ala.

Sir: Your Oxford Complexion Cream is among the best I have ever used, it shall always be on my dressing table, and you may be sure that your number of customers will be made more numerous by my advocating the use of it among my many friends and acquaintances.

Yours truly, C. E. Postwick, Merphythoro, Ill.

Sir: I have seven patrons who are taking the full course of treatments; they are perfectly satisfied with the treatments. Says your representation of different articles just as representative. I have a gentleman patient, who has ring-worms in face, I have been treating him two weeks and have taken all out of face excepting one, I feel that I am in a growing and prosperous business. Your chemicals are wonderful, and I am more anxious to go on and do everything for the future success of your business and my growth.

Yours very truly, (Miss) Peoria Black, Parsons, Kan.

Dear Sir:—

I can say, truthfully, that I have seen a great many who have had treatments from others, but none to equal the Oxford treatments. Had I taken some other course of hair treatment as many of my friends wanted me to, and afterward used the work of your course, I would have been very jealous. Your treatment does just what it says it will do, and to be without it I would miss the very pride of womanhood. So many of my friends are wonderfully surprised since they have seen my work, and say they mean to take the Oxford Course of Hair Culture. One or two ladies that are having treatments from other agents have already said they were going to take the Oxford treatment of me and buy some of the oil. It works like a charm.

Thanking you for what you have done for me, and looking to do something for you in the future.

I am, yours very truly, Mrs. Annie Handy, Quenton, Ala.

Madam:—My friends and myself think there is no other course like this one. We like it better and better. I can't help but smile whenever I open a box of Oxford Dressing Oil. My friends are always glad to hear of me making a new order. It is doing a wonderful work on some heads I deal with. Your agent, Miss Estelle Young, Ethelville, Ala.

I am compelled to say the Oxford hair preparations are among the best on the market, as you would certainly have heard from me in case your course of treating the scalp had not pleased or helped me. I think it is no more than fair to let you know that the opposite is the case.

Now, when I say that I am pleased with all that came to me from you, I am speaking the sentiments of my friends, for those that have received treatments assist me greatly in advertising my work.

Now that I am out again I am determined to do all I can for the work. Yours truly, Miss Mayne Smith, Moss Point, Miss.

BIRDIE BEAL, PIONEER LADY EMBALMER

A long stride of progress in the proper direction has been made by Birdie Beal, and she is deserving of the cordial encouragement of all the members of her race and sex. Miss Beal is the only colored lady embalmers in the city of St. Louis or state of Missouri, having successfully passed the required examination before the Board of Examiners in November, and is prepared to render first-class service to ladies. Having been well trained and having been authorized by the commonwealth, she must indeed be competent, and those who avail themselves of her services may rest assured that she will faithfully and intelligently perform her duties in a thoroughly womanly manner. Miss Beal wishes to thank her many friends for the service rendered in trying to protect her rare and sex. Miss Beal, since completing the course, has opened as lady undertaker at 2726 Lucas Avenue, connected with her father, A. L. Beal, and has had charge of eighteen lady funerals, which was very much satisfaction to the deceased families. Open day and night. Central 5048; carriages furnished for all occasions. Bomont 2726.

GIANTS NAVE HARD SCHEDULE TO PLAY

Best Teams In Country Coming Here During Next Few Weeks. Double-Header Sunday

Next Sunday the Giants will stage a double-header at Kuebler's Park. They will face the Missouri Life Insurance Club and the Darlington. The first game will start at 1:15. Both teams are said to be strong and expect to make Charlie Mills' team extend itself.

The game between the Southern Illinois team and the St. Louis boys proved to be a big one last Sunday. A big crowd saw our stars slaughter the boys from Cairo to the tune of 35 to 0. No one was disappointed but Mills. He thought he had a strong one, and went to a big expense to get them here. The spectators enjoyed the slugfest. Mills called off the games scheduled for Monday and Tuesday and sent the boys back to their own home town.

After Sunday's double-header, the strongest colored teams in the country are scheduled to face the Giants. The list will include the Nebraska Indians, West Baden Spruells, Memphis Giants, Omaha Stars, Chicago Lehigh Giants, Lincoln Giants of N. Y., and the American Giants of Chicago.

The new City League, to play baseball on Saturday afternoons has been perfected. The Giants will be one of the four teams in the combination. The other clubs are white.

The East St. Louis High School team beat the Simmons School boys 11 to 8 on last Friday and the Summer Club 4 to 3 on Saturday.

St. Louis Cubs went down in defeat Sunday, May 12 to the East St. Louis Giants, the score was 8 to 3. Features of the game were the pitching of B. Taylor, and Conise, left field.

The Cubs will play the East St. Louis Giants again next Sunday, the 16th, at Kirk's park, 230 E. Broadway, East St. Louis.

DANDY SHOW AT THE BDKKER WASHINGTON

Too Sweets, Sam Davis, Laura Bailey, Venable-Dwight Trio on Big Bill

A happy combination of good talent contributes to the Booker Washington bill this week. Sam Davis does well with his rapid fire monologue of humorous sayings and his song numbers.

The Too Sweets make a big hit in their kid impersonations. Willie is as comical as ever and Lula is still a big favorite in her baby act. By request she is again singing her hilarious song, "I'm So Glad My Maam Don't Know Where I'm At." They do considerable dancing and are scoring nicely.

Laura Bailey is a delightful big surprise as a single "Tee" voice is being displayed with good effect. She has a rich line of new jokes and takes the house by storm with her feature number, "My Tango Man," in which she does an ingenious dance with a dummy.

Venable, Owens and Harper form a classy trio. Their act is filled with excellent singing, new jokes and a wealth of good dancing. Mr. Harper is a really artistic in his acrobatic work.

Miss Owens has a rich soprano voice and Miss Venable does well in singing and dancing. The combination is of rare good quality.
